

Lending & Donating Material to the Ara Irititja Project

AGREEMENT FORM

This form allows the Pitjantjatjara Council's Ara Irititja Project to:

- receive and review for relevance material of possible interest to them
(as listed below under 'Schedule of Material');
- copy any relevant material and then use those copies in particular ways
(as outlined below in the 'Permission Statement').

Where applicable, this form also allows for:

- the permanent donation of original material to Anangu (Pitjantjatjara, Yankunytjatjara & Ngaanyatjarra people) via the Pitjantjatjara Council's Ara Irititja Project
(as outlined below in the 'Donation Statement').

This form should be read in conjunction with the document Lending and Donating Material to the Ara Irititja Project: An Overview. Ask for advice if anything is unclear to you.

PERMISSION STATEMENT

I, (print full name)

having supplied the material listed under 'Schedule of Material,' do hereby grant the Pitjantjatjara Council's Aṛa Irititja Project permission to:

- copy by photographic, electronic or any other means the listed material
- permanently incorporate those copies into its electronic archive
- use those copies as it sees fit in its own projects and publications
- use its discretion to allow other individuals and organisations to use those copies in publications or displays.

I grant this permission on the understanding that:

- within the archive database, copies of my material will be acknowledged as belonging to the (insert name)
..... collection;
- Aṅangu will be given priority access to the copies once they have been processed and entered into Aṛa Irititja's electronic archive;
- any publications or displays produced by the Aṛa Irititja Project will be developed in consultation with Aṅangu and will be respectful of their traditional beliefs and protocols;
- the Aṛa Irititja Project will endeavour to ensure that such publications or displays do not cause undue embarrassment and/or distress to Aṅangu, or to their friends and supporters;
- any income generated by such publications will be used to fund the ongoing work of the Aṛa Irititja Project;
- where practicable, any use of material will be fully acknowledged in the final product or publication; and
- any existing legal copyright is not transferred to the Aṛa Irititja Project.

In so far as I am able, I grant this permission to the Aṛa Irititja Project.

DONATION STATEMENT

I, (print full name)

do hereby donate those items marked as 'donation' in the preceding 'Schedule of Material' to the Aṛa Irititja Project.

This donation is made on the understanding that:

- the donated material will be handled in a professional manner and stored in a safe, secure and stable environment for the sake of its long-term preservation;
- the donated material will not be sold;
- the donor and the donor's descendants will be granted access to the material by arrangement with the manager of the Aṛa Irititja Project. Copies of donated material can be provided by arrangement with the manager;
- access and use of the donated material by other individuals or organisations will be under the control and at the discretion of the Pitjantjatjara, Yankunytjatjara and Ngaanyatjarra people, through the Aṛa Irititja Project;
- the South Australian Museum has agreed to house and protect the donated material in a suitably secure environment and on an ongoing basis; ownership of the donated material, however, remains with Pitjantjatjara, Yankunytjatjara and Ngaanyatjarra people;
- this donation is irrevocable and continues in perpetuity;
- permission to use the donation in publications and displays approved by the Aṛa Irititja Project is also granted in perpetuity; and
- any existing legal copyright is not transferred to the Aṛa Irititja Project.

In so far as I am able, I grant this permission to the Aṛa Irititja Project.
